HERE ARE THE TOPICS TO BE COVERED:

8:45 a.m. “Deciding Who Is Eligible For UI Benefits” Provides an overview of the primary issues affecting employee eligibility and employer liability for Unemployment Insurance benefits. Includes a discussion of quits, discharges, offers of work, work available, and how terms such as “able to work” and “available for work” are defined by UI. Offers an opportunity for the audience to ask, and get answers to, questions about how and why UI benefits are paid.

10:15 a.m. “Defining Misconduct Under Wisconsin’s Unemployment Insurance Law” Identifies the factors used by UI staff and the courts to define misconduct which can result in a claimant’s disqualification for UI benefits. Covers what is and isn’t a termination for misconduct, including absenteeism, dishonesty, and violation of company rules. Also covers the basic elements which UI considers in its investigation of a discharge issue, what information UI requests from employers and claimants, and their appeal rights.

12:30 p.m. “An Overview of Wisconsin’s Labor Standards Laws” Focuses on issues relating to overtime, hours of work, wage payment requirements, and minimum wage. Also includes a discussion of child labor. Time permitting, also provides information on topics such as the Business Closing/Mass Layoff Notification law and personnel records.

HERE ARE YOUR PRESENTERS:

EMILY SAVARD has been with the Unemployment Insurance Division since 2001. She worked as an adjudicator and is currently employed by the Division as a Disputed Claims Analyst. In this capacity, she assists in the development of laws and policies for Unemployment Insurance, trains adjudicators, evaluates decisions using state and federal guidelines, and provides technical assistance on complex claims. She also responds to inquiries from employers, claimants, and the legislature, as well as testifying at Unemployment Insurance appeal hearings. Emily is a 2000 graduate of the University of Wisconsin-Madison with a BA degree in English.

STEVE LAESCH has worked as an investigator with the Labor Standard's Bureau since 1998. In this capacity, he directly investigates and enforces state labor standards laws. Prior to coming to the Labor Standards Bureau, he worked as an investigator for the State’s Unemployment Insurance Division. Before coming to work for the State of Wisconsin, he was employed as a staff assistant with a Wisconsin congressman. Steve graduated from the University of Wisconsin-Whitewater in 1992 with a major in public policy and administration.

IS THIS YOUR FIRST CLINIC?

THIS DAY-LONG CLINIC will include speakers from the Equal Rights, Unemployment Insurance, and Worker’s Compensation Divisions with detailed information and practical guidance to help employers avoid violating state laws and rules in the topic areas on the Clinic agenda. This educational program contains information that will help employers prepare for state agency hearings and other administrative proceedings, if they become necessary.

THE WISCONSIN DEPARTMENT OF WORKFORCE DEVELOPMENT does not discriminate on the basis of disability in the provision of services or in employment. If you need assistance in using this service, please contact us. Deaf, hearing- or speech-impaired callers may reach us through the Wis. Telecommunication Relay System (WisTRS).

THIS CLINIC IS DESIGNED TO BE OF MOST HELP to persons needing an initial orientation to these topics or who wish to reconfirm their understanding of the basics. It also is designed for those who have specific questions to ask the speakers about the basic or more complex aspects of the programs.
